Windsor, July 29.

THE following Addreſs from the Clergy of the Dioceſe of York was preſented this day to Her Majeſty by John Sharp Eſq; being introduced by the moſt Honourable the Lord Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of York.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of York, being deeply affected with Your Majeſty's ſurprizing Goodneſs, in ſettling Your whole Eccleſiaſtical Revenue to be a perpetual Fond for the augmenting ſmall Benefices throughout England; do humbly beg Leave at this Seaſon, when we are called together in our ſeveral Diſtricts, to repeat and renew in our own Perſons thoſe Solemn Thanks for this Royal Benefaction to the Church, which have been already offered to Your Majeſty by our Repreſentatives in Convocation.

Indeed we are glad of all Occaſions to expreſs our great Satisfaction and Joy in having Your Majeſty to Reign over us, whoſe Principles muſt always keep You entirely to the Intereſts and Religion of the Church of England, and who has given us ſo convincing a Proof of Your Care of both by this late Act of Grace to Your poor Clergy.

We heartily pray God long to preſerve Your Majeſty, and ſo to direct and influence all Your Counſels, that You may ever purſue thoſe Glorious Principles and Inclinations which God hath inſpired You withal; and that it may never be in the Power of Your Majeſty's or the Church's Enemies to obſtruct or fruſtrate the happy Effects of them.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Dantzick, July 23. N. S. Our Advices from Warſaw ſay, That Preparations were making there for the Coronation of their new King Staniſlaus. The King of Sweden has complimented him on his Election, and has (though not without great Difficulty) prevailed with the Cardinal Primate, the Crown General, and ſeveral more of the Confederates, who oppoſed it, to acknowledge him; and has promiſed him a powerful Aſſiſtance. Some Letters add, That Three Commiſſioners are appointed on the part of Sweden, with the Character of Ambaſſadors Extraordinary, viz. Lieutenant-General Count Hoorn, the Swediſh Envoy Wradiſleven, and the Vice-Preſident Palmberg, to treat of an Alliance with Poland. In the mean time the King of Poland had for the third time iſſued his Summons to the Nobility to mount on Horſeback for the Defence of his Perſon and Government againſt the Swedes, and thoſe who are in their Intereſt; and according to the laſt Accounts from Sendomir, was preparing to depart from thence, in order to join the Succours that are marching from Muſcovy to his Aſſiſtance.

Paris, July 28. The Marquis d'Elbeuf arrived from Piedmont the 26th Inſtant at night at Verſailles, who (it is ſaid) brings Advice of the Surrender of Verceil, and that the Duke of Vendoſme intended to diſmantle that Place, and to attack Ivrea. Our Letters from Germany ſay, the Marſhal de Villeroy had been to view the Imperial Lines at Biehl, in hopes to have been able to force them, now that moſt of the Forces which were there are marched with Prince Eugene to obſerve the Marſhal de Tallard, but that he found them ſo well guarded, that he did not think fit to attempt them.

Kinſale, July 23. On the 21ſt Inſtant came in here the Owners Adventure, Michael Staples Maſter, of 240 Tuns, 10 Guns, and 20 Men; the Samuel, Richard, Holland Maſter, of 230 Tuns; and the Lion and Lamb, Joſeph Green Maſter, of 250 Tuns; all three belonging to London, and homeward-bound with Sugar and other Goods from Barbadoes: The firſt of theſe Ships was attacked off of this Harbour by a French Privateer of 12 or 14 Guns, who boarded her twice, but the Maſter and his Men made ſo good a Defence, that they killed as many of the Enemy as entered on board the Ship, and with the Aſſiſtance of one of the other Merchant Ships obliged the Privateer to retire; The Owners
